

RPU's 23rd Annual Arbor Day Celebration

The 2025 RPU Arbor Day Celebration was held on Friday, April 25, 2025, by partnering sponsors – RPU, ArborWise, Davey Tree Service, Rochester Parks & Recreation, and Sargent's Gardens. Due to weather conditions, the event was moved indoors to Rochester Community and Technical College's Field House. More than 2,500 local elementary students, educators, and chaperones gathered to have lunch and celebrate everything trees. In addition, local community members came out to enjoy the festivities and to get a free tree seedling to plant themselves.

As part of the annual Arbor Day festivities, a poster contest is held for local elementary school students. This year hundreds of students submitted posters highlighting the theme, "Trees Provide Food for Animals and People!" Each year, the winners for each grade and an overall winner are selected and featured in the RPU calendar. The overall winner for 2025 was 4th grader Lauren Winter (pictured to the right) from Mr. Lynch's class at Gibbs Elementary. Lauren's winning poster design is featured on the cover of this calendar.
